

PROMOTIONAL AND OPEN COMPETITIVE
FIRE MARSHAL
SALARY RANGE: $122,986 - $147,583

Job Summary: Under the general direction of the Fire Chief, directs all the activities of the Fire Prevention Bureau, performs the duties of the Fire Marshal; does related work as required. The Fire Marshal is the legal authority for the administration, regulation, enforcement, and investigation of all matters relating to Chapter 541 of Connecticut General Statutes and its pertinent regulations, codes, and reference standards.

In addition to performing all of the duties and responsibilities of a Fire Marshal, the Fire Marshal has responsibility for motivating, supervising, training, and evaluating subordinate-level employees.

The Fire Marshal is responsible for prioritizing, scheduling, and completing tasks associated with non-emergency response activities such as pre-fire planning, fire and life safety education, and station-based Prevention activities.

Minimum Qualifications: Five (5) years of field experience as a certified fire marshal; and Three (3) years of management and supervisory experience.

FILING REQUIREMENTS:

For Current City of Stamford (Promotional) Employees: A Resume and Letter of Interest should be submitted to the Human Resources Department via email at HrRecruiting@stamfordct.gov by the closing date of September 6, 2024.

For Open Competitive Employees: A Resume and letter of Interest along with a $35 fee should be uploaded and paid at the following link www.firefighterapp.com.

SCOPE OF EXAMINATION: There will be two assessment exercises. Candidates who are found qualified will be provided additional information at a date to be determined.

FURTHER INFORMATION

Visit our website at - www.stamfordct.gov or contact
City of Stamford Human Resources Division
888 Washington Blvd.- P.O. Box 10152
Stamford, Connecticut 06904-2152
Phone: 203-977-4733
Fax: 203-977-4075
Email: vfrancis@stamfordct.gov

PERSONNEL COMMISSION

Marc Teichman
Stuart Adelberg
Lynn Arnow
Elizabeth Elish Main
Jaclyn Williams

Dr. Paula Russell Nisbett, Director of Human Resources
(AN EQUAL OPPORTUNITY EMPLOYER)

att.